As you know, life in the foreign mission field can involve hazards. Many countries have political instability, crime, and other difficulties. It must be understood that Laymen Ministries cannot be, and will not be, held responsible for any bodily injury, sickness, or loss of personal property that might come due to travel, or other incidents. One who goes to do this work must have faith that God has called them and trust that He is in control. Laymen Ministries will do all in their utmost power to make the stay of the applicant as organized and safe as possible. Each applicant must raise at least $2500 to launch his/her project. It is preferable that these funds be raised personally rather than be paid by the parents, as to test the applicant's ability to work, organize, and to test God to see if this is really His calling to the mission applied for.

Send application to: Laymen Ministries, c/o Jeff Reich, 414 Zapada Rd., St. Maries, ID. 83861.

If you have questions call: 1-208-245-5388. Pray and study for God's will to be done.
